SUMMARY

I'm Avishek Neupane, and I am currently pursuing my BSc.CSIT degree, now in my 6th semester. With a foundational understanding of manual QA testing, I'm developing the essential skills needed to ensure software quality and user satisfaction. Over time, I've gained hands-on experience using tools like CapCut, Canva, and Meta Business Suite, which has equipped me with a good eye for detail and familiarity with content creation and management. My goal is to create seamless, user-focused experiences.
